

BATMAN'S COMING OVER THE OFFICE OF WARDEN EVANS

Majority and Minority Reports Will Be Made on the Proposition to Establish Board to Have Supervision

MAY GIVE WOMEN PLACE ON SEVERAL CITY BOARDS

Councilman Dallas Urges Election of Police Chief, Tax Assessors, Fire Chief and Others by People.

Thomas Evans, for years the "guardian of Atlanta's poor," will retain the political status of city warden elected by the people, and will not be elected under the supervision of a board or elected by the mayor and general council, if his friends can prevent the proposed charter amendment going through the Georgia general assembly.

When the proposed amendment providing for the creation of a "board of municipal charities," composed of five practical business men to spend the meager $15,000 annually appropriated by council to care for the needs of the poor, Alderman James W. Maddox and Councilman L. L. Dallas and Charles W. Alverson, want to the defense of Warden Evans and announced that they will fight any attempt in council to take the office out of his hands.

Should Appropriate Men.

"Warden Evans has been elected every time he has gone before the people," said the last time he was elected in 1911, said Alderman Maddox. "If council want to do the right thing by the warden's office it should appropriate at least $20,000 a year, and if Warden Evans cannot properly spend money, council should provide him with sufficient help."

Councilman Dallas declared that the proposed change in the charter eliminating the people from having a voice in the selection of a warden had the appearance of a "back door" move, and that he will fight the proposed change to the floor of council Monday afternoon.

"Joe Logan, secretary of the Association of Charities, and Councilman Thompson argued strongly for the proposition, and Councilman Thompson took the position that the city's money would be better spent intelligently through a board composed of five practical business men than by one man alone. He offered a copy of the proposed amendment to Logan, and Logan said he believed a board would be a great help to the city in the matter of investigating cases which come to the attention of the warden."

ATLANTA EXS BID FOR NEXT MEETING

Exalted Ruler Milner Authorized to Name Committee to Sound Business Men of City on Project.

"Sure, we'll bring the Exs to Atlanta in 1914," declared Exalted Ruler H. H. Milner, of Atlanta lodge No. 73, last night. "Everybody seems to want the big meeting, and if Atlanta merchants and business men feel the same way about it, why, there is only one thing to do—go out and get the grand lodge to accept Atlanta's invitation."

The project to bring the 1914 meeting of the Exs to Atlanta was launched last night at the meeting of the local lodge, and there was not a dissenting voice raised in all the discussions.

Exalted Ruler Milner was authorized to appoint a committee composed of all past exalted rulers and fifteen members to make a canvass among the merchants and business men of the city. This committee will be appointed within the next ten or fifteen days. After the committee has been appointed, it will make report, and then the lodge will get busy appointing committees to raise the funds for the entertainment of the visitors.

So enthusiastic are the members of Atlanta lodge over the project, many are already busy planning out a campaign. It was stated last night that $100,000 can be raised in a week, if necessary, to help the Exs.

The grand lodge will meet in Denver in 1914, and it is expected that more than 200,000 people will be in that city at that time. The 1918 convention has been conceded to Seattle, and effort will be made, it is understood, to take the convention elsewhere.

But Atlanta wants the 1918 convention, and will launch a campaign in the Denver meeting.

WOMAN GIVES HER BABY TO SECURE BOARD BILL

Chicago, May 21.—A year-old baby was given in court yesterday by his mother, Mrs. Pauline Habet, as security for a $10 board bill. The baby was turned over to Mrs. Rudolph Peterson, by order of the court the mother who was arrested after she failed to take away the son until the bill is paid.

"I like this baby," said Mrs. Peterson, in answer to an inquiry of Judge Fry. "If she wants to keep the $10 and give the baby that suits me fine."

GLAD IN BATHROBE OF HER SICK SISTER

Men, Women and Children Are Overcome in a Blaze Which Destroys Residence on Forrest Avenue.

Clad only in a bathrobe which she had found over her shoulders upon stepping from the bathroom when flames broke out in the rear of the residence on Forrest avenue last night, Mrs. Anna O. Brantley was overcome by smoke and gas fumes upon dragging to the brink of safety the unconscious form of her sister, Mrs. J. L. Sullivan.

Five others were also overcome, three children among them. Ed Williams, fourth and youngest Brantley, and Mrs. Brantley's sister, Mrs. Sullivan, carried Mrs. Brantley to the burning home of her mother's side, and were overcome by the smoke and gas fumes. Brantley and the two men rescuers were brought to safety by firemen and pedestrians.

Origin of Flames.

The Brantley home, a two-story frame building, was completely destroyed. The fire is believed to have originated from a plundered gas meter. An investigation is being made by detectives of the police department to determine the cause of the fire.

Mrs. Sullivan was removed to the nearby home of Mr. Comerford. Her three children were at the bedside. Mrs. Brantley, who had been nursing the sick woman, had stepped into the bathroom, and was preparing to take a bath. Suddenly one of the children discovered their mother's smoke coming up the staircase. She screamed an alarm. It attracted Mrs. Brantley, who, clutching a bathrobe, dashed from the bathroom.

SEE FIGHT.

Three fellow-marshals, unable to aid George, also saw the shooting. They stood near the doorway. Before they could leap behind the bar the fight was on in a twinkling, and that shot had been fired before possible interference.

Purious at this action, the saloonist grappled with the officer. He reached for a pistol which lay on a nearby table. It is said, grasping it by the butt. Catching sight of the gun George jerked it from the hand of the saloonist, and it was lodged, jumped for

Rebels Order Agent To Attend Meetings Of the Peace Makers

ONE MORE BATTLE EXPECTED TO END THE REVOLUTION

Flight of 12,000 Huerta Soldiers From Saltillo Leads Rebel Leaders to Believe War Is Nearly Over.

LAST STAND OF HUERTA PROBABLE AT QUERETARO

Federals Who Fled From Saltillo Are Retreating Towards San Luis Potosi. Saltillo Evacuated Without Fight.

Juarez, Mexico, May 21.—One "last ditch" battle will conclude the present revolutionary movement in Mexico if the news that Saltillo has been evacuated by the federal garrison is true, constitutional authorities here say.

Official news of the evacuation came to the local junta today in a message from General Phillips Angelier, constitutionalist military commander.

Queretaro, already twice famous as the spot where periods of unrest have been concluded in Mexico, is the place local officials declare will mark the last of the rebels' resistance. They pick Queretaro as the next clashing point instead of San Luis Potosi against that Saltillo is not as well adapted for a strenuous defense as Saltillo, and that the federals also may evacuate that point.

The retreat of the Carranza forces, it is said, already holds a position within the outskirts of San Luis, and it is possible they may occupy the city before the fleeing federals from Saltillo can strangle it.

Word has been received here regarding the entry of constitutionalist troops into Saltillo, and it is not believed an immediate movement to bring the main body of Villa's army to that point will be made.

The railroad from Saltillo to Paredon still is in an unprepared condition, and the need of haste is not regarded as pressing.

The next move of Villa's army, it is said, undoubtedly will be toward San Luis Potosi, but that move will not be a hurried one. General Torres is believed to be in a position to meet the advance of the Carranza forces, and constitutional troops would have to march across 200 miles of territory before reaching the city.

Preparations for the final struggle at Queretaro began today when Colonel Carranza ordered the evacuation of the city with a strong force from Tuxpan, on the Gulf coast, to the state of Queretaro.

General Carranza, in command of a force of 15,000 men, is believed to be the larger portion of his 5,000 troops to the vicinity of Vera Cruz to prevent the advance of General Carranza's forces. Ruben Navarrete from reaching the capital.

Constitutionalists have a tremendous force to hurl against Queretaro. General Carranza has ordered General Francisco Villa, with fully 25,000 men, to move southward from Tuxpan, on the Gulf coast, to join the main body of his forces. General Carranza is preparing to move toward San Luis Potosi, with 15,000 men, to join the main body of his forces.

MEDIATION MACHINERY IS WORKING SMOOTHLY

Members of the Conference Have Exchanged Views and Believe That Entire Mexican Situation Can Be Composed—It Is Believed Huerta's Delegates Have Authority to Present His Resignation.

Washington, May 21.—The constitutional machinery for settling the Mexican problem is working smoothly, it is declared by the American mediators, who are endeavoring to settle the Mexican problem. This will be done with the understanding that the representative is to give information as to General Carranza's purposes, without committing the constitutionalists to any plan for the pacification of Mexico that the mediators may determine upon.

The question of taking this step has been the subject of several informal conferences between constitutionalist leaders and representatives of the Washington administration recently, and it is understood that General Carranza has given his consent.

INVITATION TO CARRANZA

It was reported tonight on apparently reliable authority that another invitation may be sent to Carranza by the mediators to take formal part in the mediation proceedings. WANT HADEN IN RACE FOR GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Friends Will Ask President of the State Chamber of Commerce to Announce.

Strong pressure is being brought to bear upon Charles J. Haden, president of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, to consent to the use of his name for the general assembly from Fulton county.

Mr. Haden has been out of the city for several days and knows nothing of the movement, but it is said that it is reaching large proportions, and that he will be asked to stand with Judge Spencer R. Atkinson, and later on someone else will be asked to make the third of the trio to stand together for Atlanta and Fulton county.

Mr. Haden has for years been prominently identified with the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and during the past year has worked incessantly for the development of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, which has brought him in close touch with every part of Georgia. There are few men in Atlanta more generally known throughout the state than Mr. Haden, and if he should consent to become a candidate for the general assembly, it is certain that he will have a very strong following.

Whether or not Mr. Haden will consent to the use of his name remains to be seen, as the matter has not as yet been presented to him.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL ARE ENTERTAINED AT GIRLS' HIGH SCHOOL

A luncheon will be given at the Girls' High school today at 1 o'clock, to Mayor James G. Woodward, members of council and the board of education.

The luncheon is given in recognition of the interest which these gentlemen feel in the public schools of the city. Several speeches will be made and the occasion promises to be one of interest.

ATLANTA GREETERS WILL GIVE A DANCE NEXT WEEK

The Greeters' club will give a dance next week at one of the hotels in the city in order to raise funds to send delegates to Los Angeles, Cal., on June 8 to the annual national convention of the Greeters of America.

The delegates from Atlanta will have the distinction of representing the southeastern states. Assistant Manager Frank Taylor, of the Piedmont hotel, will be one of the delegates.

The Greeters' club, of Atlanta, has about thirty members, or as many as all the other southeastern clubs combined. The southeastern Greeters are entitled to five delegates at the convention.

DEERE PLOW SALESMEN MEETING IN ATLANTA

The southern salesmen of the John Deere Plow company are holding a convention at the Hotel Ansley. About twenty delegates are in attendance.

The convention opened Thursday with a luncheon at the hotel. William H. Stenta, secretary and manager of the Atlanta office, is the man of the entertainment committee.

PLAN COMPLETED FOR ADAIR DINNER

Governor Slaton, Mayor Woodward and Others Will Make Addresses.

The dinner which the Nobles of Yassar temple are giving to their illustrious potentate, Porret Adair, on the coming Monday, the 25th, will be purely an informal affair.

The nobles are expected to be at the Druid Hills clubhouse promptly at 6:30 o'clock, wearing their business suits and ties.

The committee on arrangements has arranged with the street railway company to have sufficient cars parked directly in front of the auditorium to carry the Nobles out to the Druid Hills clubhouse who have not autos.

Cars will leave promptly at 6 o'clock.

Notices are being mailed to the members of Yassar temple who have sent in their contributions that their wives or sweethearts are invited to be at the clubhouse at 7:30 o'clock.

Past Potentate John A. Hynds will make the presentation speech of the remembrance Yassar temple is giving Mr. Adair. At the same time, Mr. C. McElhee, representing the citizens committee, will deliver their gift to Mr. Adair.

Best remarks will be made by Governor Slaton, Mayor Woodward, James R. Gray, and Ernest Outley of Savannah, after which the floors will be cleared and Potentate Adair will lead off with the grand march. The rest of the evening will be spent in dancing.

FINDS THE REASON WHY ATLANTA IS BIG CITY

Robert G. Gilbert, special representative of the largest hotel in the world, the McAlhain, who is in the city that she is.

Mr. Gilbert is collecting literature telling of Atlanta's swift climb to the position of metropolis and the place it will occupy in the future.

Mr. Gilbert declares he is impressed with the thrift and prosperity of Atlanta. "It has," he says, "the three good things, good hotels, good newspapers, and good people."

He found Atlanta, then, from any other city in the south.

WILBURN CLEMENCY CASE IS POSTPONED

The clemency plea of Nick Wilburn, who was to have been heard by the prison commission Thursday afternoon, was postponed on account of the absence of John R. Cooper, one of his attorneys.

Wilburn is sentenced to hang May 29 for the murder of James R. King, and he is asking that his sentence be commuted to life imprisonment. The prison commission will ask that Governor Slaton grant an additional delay of two weeks so that the hearing may be had the first Monday in June.

THOUGHT ATKINSON WILL CONSENT TO RUN

Many Friends Urge Him to Offer for Legislature From Fulton.

While Judge Spencer R. Atkinson has not as yet made any definite reply to the recently presented petition urging him to consent to the use of his name to represent Fulton county in the next general assembly, it is understood that he has consented to become a candidate and that his reply to the petitioners is now being prepared.

It is stated by a close personal friend that the pressure upon Judge Atkinson has been such that it has been impossible for him to resist.

His announcement, therefore, may be expected at any time, and it seems certain that his nomination is assured.
